

TONY VASQUEZ

Associate

BOOTH HANSEN

Tony joined our architectural team in 2013 after spending his internship with Booth Hansen. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University McCormick School of Engineering and Applied Science where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering with a certificate in Architectural Engineering and Design.

As part of our design team, Tony has worked on educational, cultural, and residential projects. As a member of our sustainability team he studies new projects through energy analysis models and performs LEED documentation, most recently for the LEED Platinum Education Center at the Chicago Botanic Garden. He was a member of our winning team in the Architecture at Zero 2013 competition. As lead of the communications team, he has actively worked towards furthering our practice through strategic redevelopment and outreach efforts.
